TEAM JAPAN ARRIVES TO MONTERREY

This Sunday May 29th, Team Japan arrived to Monterrey with a huge goal: the World University Championship.

Interviewed on mexican soil, head coach Hideaki "Hank" Toriuchi from Kwansai Gakuin University told us he is very happy to be in Monterrey, and that their goal is to be champions.

He mentioned there are 3 players that repeat from the japanese squad that obtained the silver medal on Uppsala 2014, and that they have a balanced team, that their first big objective is to focus on their group games against Guatemala and the USA. He doesn't think the weather will be a factor against his team, and they are ready to play in hot weather.

One of the players that was on the 1st WUC on Uppsala, is Defensive Back Daichi Kozu (36) from Baker University a university from Kansas, Mo., that is part of the NAIA.

He is very delighted to be in Monterrey, and he says Team Japan is very focused to play in the gold medal game, and they're ready to hit the practice field and play against Guatemala in their opener, next Thursday June 2nd.

He likes Monterrey and doesn't think the weather will be a factor against them, they are well prepared physically and he is very proud to represent his country.

TEAM USA HITS THE PRACTICE FIELD

This Monday May 30th, Team USA squad hit the practice field on Xenia, Ohio prior to their departure to Monterrey on May 31st.

Team reported ready and anxious to travel to Mexico and participate on the 2nd World University Championship from the FISU.

OFFICIALS CLINIC BEGINS IN MONTERREY

This Monday May 30th the NCAA official Bill LeMonnier began the football clinic for referees and coaches, with the assistance of Mexican official Edmundo Rubio in the Student Building on Monterrey Tech.

There was a good assistance of 32 referees all over Mexico, which attended during 4 hours the session, this as part of the preparation they are taking to begin the event.
